

Delaware Physiatry

Neurorehabilitation and Pain

“ Our goal is to improve patient’s quality of life, physical and cognitive function and reduce pain. ”

Treatments include prescribing therapies and exercises, coordinating treatment plans with therapists and nurses, prescribing medications and performing injections.

Services We Offer to Skilled Nursing Facilities

- Oversight of functional patient care.
- Patient visits 2-3 x/week as needed.
- Attendance at weekly insurance meeting to discuss safe discharge plans.
- Attendance during family meeting/care plans as needed.
- Coordinate treatment with Primary doctor, specialists, therapy, and nursing and communicate with patient and family on progress.
- Sign home health and equipment orders for discharge.
- Clinical documentation to help support therapy, audits and surveys.
- Peer to peer reviews for insurance denials.
- Diagnose orthopedic and neurologic and musculoskeletal conditions.
- Perform Botox, nerve blocks, manage baclofen pumps for spasticity post stroke/TBI/spinal cord injury.
- Manage pain/opioids medications.
- Management of wounds.
- Management of Delirium.
- Management of Neurogenic Bladder and Bowel.
- Provide in-service education for nursing/therapy team as needed for precautions and establish protocols for prevention of bed sores, falls and UTI.

Services We Offer to Assisted Living and Long Term Care Residents

- Consultations and follow ups at bedside for patients.
- Diagnose orthopedic and neurological and musculoskeletal conditions.
- Conditions can help ordering Medicare Part B therapy Services.
- Perform injections for joint pain, tendinitis, nerve pain etc at bedside.
- Perform Botox, nerve blocks, manage baclofen pumps for spasticity post stroke/TBI/spinal cord injury at bedside.
- Manage pain/Opioid medications at bedside.
- Management of Delirium.
- Management of Neurogenic Bladder and Bowel.
- Provide in-service education for nursing/therapy team as needed for precautions and establish protocol for prevention of bedsores, falls and UTI.

Haresh Sampathkumar, MD

Phone: 302-387-1407

Fax: 302-535-8551

Website: www.delawarephysiatry.com